

Rising Sun Arts Council

1 East Main Street Rising Sun, Maryland 21911 / 410-658-5353 / artscouncil@risingsunmd.org

Press Release:

Art, Music and Fun at Second Saturdays in the Sun

Rising Sun's Own & Local Favorites Return for Second Saturday in the Sun!

OCTOBER PIE FUNDRAISER:

Your Personal Chef is having an October Pie Fundraising event to support the Rising Sun Arts Council. Call today to pre-order your homemade apple and pumpkin pies for pick up on or before Friday October 9th 2015. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Rising Sun Arts Council to help raise funds for the upcoming year. All pies are handmade and filled with fresh ingredients and at $16.00 a pie is well worth it and helps us to bring wonderful events to our residents.

Your Personal Chef is located at 4 South Queen Street in Rising Sun, with on street parking and off street parking located behind Sun Pets. Parking is also available in the Rising Sun Municipal Parking lot adjacent to Sun Pharmacy at 1 Queen Street in Rising Sun. Call (410) 658-9722 and order your pies today and be sure to mention the Rising Sun Arts Council.

October 10, 2015 from 5p.m. to 7p.m

TOWN HALL ART GALLERY EXHIBIT: Fall Into Creativity

Please join us for our fall inspired Second Saturday Art event featuring local artists Eddie Yates, Rhonda Willien and Pam Tomlinson. Eddie Yates is a local wood turner who turns roadside finds into beautiful wooden bowls, ornaments and various works of art. Pam Tomlinson keeps the world in focus behind the lens of her camera. Her work captures animals in their natural environment and reflects her love of nature. Rhonda Willien sees the world in pictures and feels the need to capture every moment in her photos. Her work often reflects her passion for the beach and the love she has for her two children. Also featured is artisan work on loan from Florida basket weaver Georgia Cook. The Historic Museum will be open and the Rising Sun Arts Council will be selling t-shirts for $ 10.00. This event is free and open to the public. The event runs from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Refreshments provided by Martins Grocery Store and Your Personal Chef Catering.

Parking is available on Main Street and in the Municipal Lot adjacent to Sun Pharmacy.

Thank you,

The Rising Sun Arts Council Committee