" shall be guilty of a summery offence, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1000.00) or by imprisonment not exceeding (30) days or both such fine and imprisonment. A separate offense shall be deemed committed each day during or on which a violation or noncompliance occurs or continues."

- (c) Section 111. Titled Stop Work Order, shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

SECTION 111 CEASE AND DESIST

111.1 Stop work and cease and desist orders. When, in the opinion of the Fire Code Official, there is an unlawful activity being conducted at a property, or work associated with the abatement of a violation is not being performed properly; or there exists an activity or condition that is detrimental to the peace and good order of the community, or is causing a public nuisance, and the continuation of such activities or conditions will only further exasperate the situation, then the Fire Code Official may issue a "Stop Work" or "Cease and Desist" order on those persons responsible for such activities or conditions.

111.2 Issuance. A Stop Work and or a Cease and Desist order shall be in writing and shall be given to the owner of the property, or to the owner's agent, or to the person performing the work or conducting the activity. Upon issuance of a Stop Work and or a Cease and Desist order, the cited work and or activity shall immediately cease. The stop work order shall state the reason for the order; and the conditions under which the cited work is authorized to resume.

111.2.1 Emergencies. Where an emergency exist, the Fire Code Official shall not be required to give a written notice prior to stopping the work or activity.

111.3 Failure to comply. Any persons responsible for activities or conditions prohibited in a cease and desist order, which fail to obey such orders, shall be subject to the violations and penalties as outlined in section 109.3

111.2.1 Separate Violations. Failure to comply with a “Stop Work” and or “Cease and Desist” order, shall be considered a separate violation independent of the original violation or activity previously cited and do not require prior notice as spelled out in this code, and if found guilty of such violation, the penalties outlined in section 109.3 shall automatically apply.

(d) Section 508.5 titled Fire hydrant systems, shall be revised as follows:

(1) Section 508.5.1 titled Where required, shall be revised by deleting the word Fire Code Official at the end of the paragraph and replacing it with the words “Fire Chief, or his designee.”

(2) A new section 508.5.91 shall be inserted to read as follows:

508.5.91 Multiple Hydrants Fire systems requiring more than two hydrants shall be looped.

(3) A new section 508.5.93 shall be inserted to read as follows:

508.5.93 Use of Fire Hydrants.

(1) No person other than an authorized employee of the Town or a member of a fire department acting under orders of his proper superior in the performance of his duties, may operate a fire hydrant, unless they are in possession of current and proper permit from the Town of Rising Sun.

(2) Fire Hydrants may not be used for flushing or for any other purpose except by special written permission of the Town of Rising Sun, outlining the specific location, time and expected duration. If such permission is granted, the water used shall be charged at the prevailing water rates, plus an administrative oversight charge.

(e) Section 3204.3.1.1. titled Location, delete all text after the word “prohibited” in the first sentence, and insert “within the incorporated limits of the Town of Rising Sun”.

(f) Section 3404.2.9.5.1. titled Location, delete all text after the word

“prohibited” in the first sentence, and insert “within any zoning district accept industrial and commercial.”

- (g) Section 3406.2.4.4 titled Location, delete all text after the word “prohibited” in the first sentence, and insert “within any zoning district accept industrial and commercial.”
